

Full House Expected As The Magic Numbers Head To Manchester

In 2005 T-Mobile Street Gigs brought some of the biggest bands including Kasabian, Editors and Hard Fi to the UK's streets for a series of spontaneous, live gigs. The gigs have just been getting bigger and better and T-Mobile have finally arrived in Manchester for what is set to be one of the most spectacular yet – eyes down as The Magic Numbers get set to bring euphoria to Manchester's New Century Bingo Hall.

Four is definitely The Magic Number as the heavenly quartet head to New Century bingo hall on Friday 28th July. The two sets of siblings will put on a compelling live show as they perform a host of beautiful harmonies and hypnotic melodies. Forget 'legs eleven' and get ready for 'Long Legs' as Magic Numbers take Manchester's New Century Bingo Hall to heaven.

Your Magic Numbers could be up, as casino chips will be given out upon arrival for use in the casino throughout the night. Whatever your luck, these Magic Numbers are sure to put a smile on your face as they bring a fresh and unique sound to Manchester.

The only certainty with a T-Mobile Street Gig is to expect the unexpected! Recent T-Mobile Street Gigs involved The Strokes roaring at the Natural History Museum, The Streets performing in London's only lighthouse, The Rakes rocking out a Turkish Kebab shop and Pharrell playing at a fruit market! A total of 20 bespoke T-Mobile Street Gigs are planned for 2006 and each one will be a unique entertainment experience in its own right, created by T-Mobile in order to bring music fans closer to the experiences they love.

Over the next few months, T-Mobile customers and their music fan mates will have the chance to see their favourite bands performing live in the most unusual and unexpected settings...the select crowd will always know where their Street Gigs experience starts, but they'll never know beforehand quite how it's going to end up!

Tickets are strictly by invite only. To be in with a chance of getting on the guest list for this intimate gig, music fans must register online at www.t-mobile.co.uk/street from 9am 18th July and closes at XXX
